

Trauma Informed Domestic Abuse: Training Opportunities

'Rise for Change' is a CPD accredited, trauma-informed domestic abuse training program within Thames Valley Partnership that empowers participants beyond the scope of 'general awareness' by encouraging self-reflection and critical thinking, as well as providing education that focuses on survivor experience, intersectionality and the impact of trauma.

These courses are normally provided to paid group bookings only, so this is an exclusive chance to be able to book an individual place enhance your professional and personal learning. For further details on each course please see the 'course content' page.

Understanding domestic abuse and the impacts on those experiencing it (Online)

Tue May 31st – 9AM-12PM

&

Tue Sep 6 – 9AM-12PM

Domestic Abuse: understanding its landscape
& learning how to respond safely (Online)

Wed Oct 5 – 9AM-12:30PM

Domestic Abuse: navigating disclosures safely (Online)

Thu Nov 10 – 9AM-12PM

Our courses are highly recommended by a range of professionals such as the NHS clinical staff, safeguarding leads, mental health managers, counsellors, DA champions, HR leads and Police staff, so don't miss out on this exciting opportunity!

Who is it for?

Our training has been created with the below audiences specifically in mind:

- HR Managers and Senior Leaders who are responsible for ensuring the wider team/company practices, policies and training.
- ‘Non-specialist frontline professionals’ which includes professional roles that are extremely likely to have contact with survivors but do not fall into the category of being ‘Domestic Abuse Specialists’.
- Those with existing DA training or knowledge who seek to refresh and update their understanding.

How do I book on?

- Please contact r4c@thamesvalleypartnership.org.uk to book your place or if you have any enquiries regarding the sessions.
- Places are limited and are on a ‘first come first serve’ basis.
- You must attend the whole session in order to qualify for a CPD certificate.

Pricing

Please note discounts are listed for police services. If you are not an active member of police service and have concerns about financial accessibility, please contact r4c@thamesvalleypartnership.org.uk.

Understanding domestic abuse and the impacts on those experiencing it (3hrs Online)

Per ticket: £64 +VAT

Per ticket for Police staff: £60 +VAT

Domestic Abuse: understanding its landscape & learning how to respond safely (3.5hrs Online)

Per ticket: £68 +VAT

Per ticket for Police staff: £62 +VAT

Domestic Abuse: navigating disclosures safely (3hrs Online)

Per ticket: £64 +VAT

Per ticket for Police staff: £60 +VAT
